Goal of the California Cup : To help archers of all levels gain experience in shooting the Olympic Round. All ages are welcome, but must be able to shoot the "Adult Distances"

Round:

- One Day FITA - 144 arrows
- 8 - Round Robin Matches - Head to Head
- Top Eight - 12 arrow elimination matches

Outline:

- Saturday: One (1) day FITA
- Sunday: 8 / 12 arrow matches
- Sunday: Top eight in each division and bracket will shoot for championship or top spot in single elimination matches. (12 arrow)

Description:

- The field will be cut to 32 in each division after the FITA. The FITA will determine the ranking of each archer.
- Archers ranking 1 - 16 will be in the medal bracket. Archers 17-32 will be in consolation bracket. Archers in the consolation bracket cannot place higher than 17th.
- Archers in each division / bracket will shoot 8 -12 arrow matches in a round robin fashion. Each match will consist of 2 / 6 arrow ends. (12 arrows total)
- Top eight archers in each division / bracket will advance to the elimination round.
- This will be determined by adding the FITA Score and the total points shot plus bonus points won from the Round Robin matches.
- The elimination round will determine the champion of the tournament.
